

Corplex Announces Relocation to Expanded Headquarters

Lake Bluff, IL (Friday, May 23rd 2008) Corplex, Incorporated, a provider of remote television broadcast facilities has announced their relocation to a new expanded facility.

The company recently moved to a 16,500 square foot facility in Lake Bluff, Illinois, more than doubling the space of their previous location. New facility improvements include four internal truck bays, additional warehouse space, significant power upgrades, and expansive parking facilities.

The new contact information is as follows:

Corplex, Inc.
915 Sherwood Drive
Lake Bluff, IL 60044
847-582-8800 (Office)
847- 582-8730 (fax)

Corplex is a leading provider of remote production broadcast facilities to the major networks including coverage of NFL Football, NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, Masters, PGA Championship, and NBA Playoffs. The company is privately held, managed, and owned by partners Carter Ruehrdanz, Scott West, Dave Greany and Robert Danko.

For additional information, please contact Scott West at (847) 582-8800 or scott@corplex.tv Current news and information is also available on the company's website – www.corplex.tv